11 Days - Grandeur of Japan

Day 1 Fly to Tokyo

Depart from your local airport.

If requested, our flight reservation team will be delighted to assist in booking your flight according to your preferred departure airport.

Day 2 Tokyo

Arrive at the airport in Tokyo and self transfer to your hotel.

Airport meeting assistant and transfer service can be provided as an option if required.

Day 3 Tokyo

(Includes Breakfast & Izakaya Dinner)

After breakfast in your hotel, meet your Tour Leader and professional Tour Guide who will look after you during your tour and travel with you throughout.

Today we explore Tokyo by subway and our first stop is the Imperial Palace, the main residence of the Emperor of Japan.

Next, we explore Tokyo's most colourful Buddhist Temple, the famous and bustling Asakusa Kannon Temple.

Experience 'Sakura' and enjoy Cherry blossoms viewing in Ueno Park, which is one of the best places to see the blossoms, which should hopefully be in bloom during your visit.

Our next stop is the modern Shinjuku district of Tokyo, where we experience the hustle and bustle of this exciting city. We visit Shibuya Crossing, said to be the busiest intersection in the world. We also explore Akuhabara and Ginza, with free time in Ginza to shop.

Return to our hotel and get ready to go out for a Izakaya meal at a local restaurant or bar. This is a great experience often not discovered by tourists and highlights real Japanese culture. It is also a good opportunity to relax and make friends.

Day 4 Tokyo – Mt Fuji- Hakone-Tokyo

(Includes Breakfast)

In the morning we gather in the hotel lobby to be welcomed by our Tour Guide, where we transfer together to Hakone by bullet train.

Upon arrival in Hakone, we take a local bus and cable car to explore the scenery of Hakone with our guide. On a clear day Hakone provides great views of Mt Fuji. Together with our guide we take a cable car and explore the volcanic Owakudani Valley. Afterwards, where we board a boat to cruise the still water of Lake Ashi.

Afterwards we visit the restored Hakone Sekisho, which was an important check point established by the Tokugawa shogun. Later we return to our hotel in Tokyo by train.

Day 5 Tokyo – Nagano – Yudanaka

(Includes Breakfast & Japanese Dinner)

Today, we travel around Tokyo with our Tour Guide to explore more must-see sights of Tokyo. Afterwards we travel to the impressive Meiji Shrine which is dedicated to the spirits of Emperor Meiji and his consort. Pass through the huge Shinto Torii gates and take a leisurely walk in the peaceful forest leading to the Shrine, far away from the hustle and bustle of modern Tokyo.

Later we explore Harajuku and Omotesando Districts of Tokyo which is the centre of Japan's most extreme teenage cultures and fashion styles where many teenagers dress up in crazy costumes to resemble animation characters and punk musicians etc. Harajuku and Omotesando also offers great shopping opportunities and historic sights to explore.

Around midday we leave Tokyo for Yudanaka (via Nagano) by Bullet train. Upon arrival at you Ryokan, we rest in the hot spring baths (Onsen) and enjoy a wonderful Japanese Dinner. Japanese style room

To make your train journey more comfortable we have arranged to transfer your large luggage directly to Takayama. Prepare a smaller carry bag for your time in Yudanaka and Matsumoto.

Day 6 Yudanaka – Matsumoto - Takayama

(Includes Breakfast)

In the morning we travel with our guide on the shuttle bus to see the Snow Monkey park and have time to enjoy the antics of the cheeky red faced monkeys relaxing in the outdoor hot spring pools (approx 30min). Later we return to our Ryokan and transfer together to our hotel in Matsumoto by train.

Upon arrival we have a walking tour of Matsumoto and visit Matsumoto castle, known as 'crow castle' due to its unique black exterior. Matsumoto castle is one of only four castles designated as National Treasures of Japan and is stunningly beautiful. Afterwards stroll around the traditional old quarter (Nawate Dori).

Afterwards we proceed to Takayama by express bus or train (non-reserved seats).

Day 7 Takayama – Shirakawago – Gokoyama - Takayama

(Includes Breakfast)

After breakfast we take a walking tour of Takayama, which includes the morning market, visiting the House of Yoshijima constructed circa 1907 and former home of a prosperous merchant engaged in the production of sake.

Afterwards we visit Yatai Kaikan Exhibition Hall to see the historic floats used during Takayama's yearly Festival. Our next stop is Kamisannomachi street which is in the old area of Takayama and reminiscent of ancient times when Samurai wandered the streets. Afterwards we visit the Takayama Jinya, a former Government Outpost of the Shogun.

Early afternoon we leave for Shirakawago by sight seeing bus with our guide. Shirakawago is UNESCO World Heritage listed, nestled into a valley surrounded by stunning forests and mountains. Shirakawago is well known for the unique architectural style of the village houses, known as gassho-zukuri. The Gassho-zukuri style of house is characterised by a thatched steeply slanting roof resembling two hands joined in prayer. Upon arrival we visit a typical Gasho-zukuri House and take a leisurely walk around Shirakawago Village.

We then travel onward by bus to Gokoyama, which is also UNESCO World Heritage listed. Gokoyama is smaller and even more charming and authentic wonder to enjoy. Afterwards we return to Takayama by bus.

DAY 8 Takayama – Kyoto – Nara - Kyoto

(Includes Breakfast)

After Breakfast we transfer by train to Kyoto and take a short walk to our hotel.

In the afternoon we make the short train journey to Nara where we enjoy a walking tour of the ancient capital city of Japan. Enjoy strolling in the Deer Park and exploring the impressive Todaiji Temple and Great Buddha.

Return to Kyoto by train and check into our hotel. In the evening we enjoy a wonderful Geisha / Maiko performance at Gion Corner (Not private).

Separate 1 piece luggage transfer per person to Kyoto - Arriving the next day.

Day 9 Kyoto

(Includes Breakfast)

Today we enjoy a sightseeing walking tour with our tour Guide using public transport. We visit the famous Golden Pavilion (Kinkakuji Temple) and Ryoanji Temple, which has Japan's most famous Zen rock garden.

Nijo Castle, commissioned by Tokugawa Ieyasu, the founder of the Tokugawa Shogunate and completed in 1626. One of the most intriguing features is the "nightingale floors" designed to squeak like birds when anyone walks on them and designed to warn occupants of sneak attacks by Ninja assassins. Afterwards we return to our hotel by local bus.

Day 10 Kyoto

(Includes Breakfast & Dinner)

After breakfast we visit the impressive and must-see Kiyomizu Temple, built perched on the hillside overlooking Kyoto.

We then walk through Ninnenzaka and Sannenzaka on one of Kyoto's most beautiful walks, which takes us down into the Gion area of Kyoto, famous for Geisha's. Enjoy walking down narrow streets lined with old wooden houses, traditional shops and restaurants. On our way we will visit Kodaiji Temple located in a beautiful part of Kyoto sitting atop a hill.
